

ADVANCED SECURITY FOR TESCO

6 February 2009

Tesco has awarded Advance Security's Retail and Supply Chain Division its prestigious corporate security contract.

Awarded to Advance following a competitive tender against two other companies, the manned guarding contract will cover Tesco's UK head offices - a total of seven facilities based in Cheshunt, Welwyn Garden City, Letchworth, Dundee and Cardiff.

Advance won the contract because of its innovative approach to service delivery and its track record providing manned guarding at Tesco distribution centres and retail stores in the north of England and Scotland.

Chris Fieldhouse, managing director of Advance Security's Retail and Supply Division, said: "We are delighted to have this opportunity to expand upon our existing relationship with Tesco. Their decision to award us the contract is a reflection of the value they place upon our approach and the quality of service we provide."

Advance Security's Retail and Supply Chain Division handles security for some of the country's largest retailers including Iceland, Matalan, Primark, Homebase and Mothercare. The company employs more than 3000 people countrywide.
